MAT Teacher Education Admission Statement

The preparation of school professionals is a complex process. Prospective educators must acquire a body of general knowledge, professional knowledge, and content-specific knowledge. The Professional Education Program at North Carolina A&T State University is committed to the development of educators who are aware of diverse populations in their communities, who appropriately use and interpret assessment data to guide future decision making, who engage in the skillful art of reflection to transform thinking and practice, and who use various forms of technology to manage instruction and assessment.

Admission to the University and a content area program does NOT automatically guarantee formal admission to the Teacher Education program. All MAT students are required to complete formal admission requirements during the first semester of enrollment at the North Carolina A&T State University. Specifically, MAT students must complete the following:

1. Purchase and create a TaskStream (www.taskstream.com) account
2. Complete the Dispositions Survey
3. Complete an Application for Admission to Teacher Education Read and sign the Notification and Acknowledgement of Criminal Background Form
4. Successfully complete the Teacher Education Interview

Failure to complete Teacher Education formal admission requirements during the first semester of enrollment may result in the student's inability to register for professional core courses.

 Have you ever had a teaching certificate or license revoked or suspended by a state or other governing body? Yes No If yes, submit a statement to the Office of Teacher Education (380 Proctor Hall) providing full details and official documentation of the action taken.*
