

COLLEGE OF AGRICULTURE AND ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCES

Department of Animal Sciences

OUR HIGHLY QUALIFIED AND ENTHUSIASTIC FACULTY and staff provide first-class advising and instruction, guiding students through bachelor of science degrees in animal science, animal science-industry and laboratory animal science.

The CAES produces the second highest number of African Americans who go on to pursue the D.V.M. in the United States.

Source: Diverse Issues in Higher Education

82%
Retention rate for fall 2019

7
ANIMAL UNITS
located at our University Farm and Webb Hall

2	Bachelor of Science Degrees	1. Laboratory Animal Science	2. Animal Science with a concentration in Animal Industry
1	Master of Science Degree	Agricultural and Environmental Systems with a concentration in Integrated Animal Health Systems
1	Doctor of Philosophy*	Agriculture and Environmental Sciences

*Pending SACSCOC approval

5 research labs
in Webb Hall engage students in cutting-edge research

11 states represented by our current freshmen class

403
Fall 2020

ENROLLMENT GROWTH

271
Fall 2014

NORTH CAROLINA AGRICULTURAL AND TECHNICAL STATE UNIVERSITY
AGRICULTURE AND ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCES