

Minor (History)

DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY AND POLITICAL SCIENCE COLLEGE OF ARTS, HUMANITIES AND SOCIAL SCIENCES (REVISED SEPTEMBER 2024)

The minor in History is designed to provide undergraduate students in other majors with the fundamentals of past or the governmental systems and political activity today necessary for advanced study in the discipline and/or employment in museums, law, mass media, politics, education, and related occupations. The minor in History offers a structured program that allows students to acquire some level of skills in written and oral communication, ethical reasoning, critical thinking, intercultural and global awareness, and scholarly research with an emphasis in general history. The program requires 15 credit hours to be completed and passed with a grade of "C" or higher. The student must complete at least 24 hours of academic credits in their own major before declaring a minor and must have a minimum GPA of 2.00. A student may not have more than the two minors regardless of the student's major. The minor will be printed on the students' transcript but not on the Diploma. A minor in this content area requires a minimum of twelve (12) credit hours not included in the baccalaureate degree plan of study at the 200-level or above. Students must complete all required courses, and no substitution of courses will be allowed.

This minor in History aligns with specific program courses across multiple majors on campus. All undergraduate majors can benefit from the breadth of this field.

Courses	Credit Hours
HIST 309: Modern Europe	3
HIST 412: Modern Africa 1920 to Present	3
HIST 418: Conflict/Chge Latin Amer Carri	3
HIST 433: US East Asian Relationship	3
HIST 470: US History Since 1932-Present	3
Total Credit hours	15

Effective: Fall 2025