Dear Aggie Family and Friends:

Welcome home to Aggieland for yet another year of amazing celebrations at the Greatest Homecoming on Earth. We look forward to this time each year as an opportunity to reflect on our experiences, reconnect with our classmates and show support to our alma mater.

North Carolina A&T was established 130 years ago as a modest land-grant college. Today, we are a premier land-grant, doctoral higher-research activity institution where high-achieving scholars engage in transformative teaching and learning, civic outreach, interdisciplinary research and finding innovative solutions to global challenges. With more than 60,000 alumni around the globe and counting, North Carolina A&T's impact grows every year.

We continue to build upon our leadership as the largest historically Black college or university (HBCU) in the nation with an enrollment this fall of 13,322 students. We are proud to know that our present students will one day join the ranks of illustrious alumni who make everyday contributions to the communities where we live, work and serve.

As we move relentlessly toward the ambitious goals expressed in our strategic plan – A&T Preeminence: Taking the Momentum to 2023 – we are becoming ever more competitive as a comprehensive, land-grant, doctoral higher research university, as illustrated by outstanding outcomes and a growing profusion of national rankings. We've now been among the three most active research campuses in the University of North Carolina (UNC) System for more than a decade. We rank No. 1 among all HBCUs in Money magazine and Washington Monthly, and among America's top 50 national universities for innovation and social mobility in U.S. News & World Report. Perhaps most importantly to our alumni, our graduates earn more in their early careers than those of all but two other institutions in the UNC system early in their careers.

These are remarkably exciting times at N.C. A&T. We have experienced many reasons to be proud of our university this year. We recognize that our growth is in part attributed to the generosity that many of our alumni and friends have shown in support of the university. We thank you for your contributions to our success and honor your commitment to our institution. There is still much work to be done.

As you absorb the energy of Homecoming, we encourage you to take time to consider how you can invest in the progressive development of our alma mater. We need your time, talents and resources to continue the impactful work of the institution in East Greensboro, North Carolina, and the world beyond. We invite you to volunteer, engage and donate – because that's what Aggies DO!

With Aggie Pride,

A LAND-GRANT UNIVERSITY and A CONSTITUENT INSTITUTION of THE UNIVERSITY of NORTH CAROLINA

Dear Alumni and Friends,

Welcome home for the 95th celebration of the Greatest Homecoming on Earth!

Homecoming at North Carolina A&T State University is an experience unlike any other. It is a time to reconnect with old friends, classmates and reminisce about the days you roamed the campus as a student. As you wrap yourselves with that good ol' Aggie spirit prepare yourselves for the many exciting activities that will inform, connect and entertain you.

During your visit I invite you to experience the transformation –physical and intellectual–of our beloved alma mater guided by A&T Preeminence: Taking the Momentum to 2023. Whether this is your first time returning to campus or your 50th visit, you will be proud of all of the improvements to make N.C. A&T the institution of choice for higher education.

None of this progress would be possible without you. It is through your ongoing commitment of your time, talent and treasures that A&T is able to provide the programs and amenities that enrich the lives of countless students.

As you participate in this year's festivities I encourage you to take the time to share the legacy of Aggie Pride with our students and what it means to you. Because that's what Aggies DO!

With Much Aggie Pride,

Teresa M. Davis, '89

VERIFICATION CHECK STATIONS

If you plan to attend North Carolina A&T's homecoming football game at Truist Stadium, please take a moment to learn what you MUST provide to be able to enter the stadium on game day.

All attendees must provide either:

- Proof of vaccination against COVID-19 OR
- Proof of a negative COVID-19 PCR test results within 72 hours of the game

To minimize your time in line, we have set up 14 verification check stations that will be open from 8 a.m. through the end of the third quarter (see parking map). Attendees will be required to go to one of the verifications stations prior to seeking entry to the stadium. Each fan, including children under 12, will be required to supply:

- Proof of COVID-19 vaccination -- either both of the Moderna or Pfizer shots or the single Johnson & Johnson vaccine. The proof may be the paper vaccination card provided when the attendee got their shot, a digital image of the card or digital proof of vaccination from the state Department of Health, and must be accompanied by a photo ID that associates the attendee with the vaccination proof.

OR

- Proof of a negative COVID-19 PCR test result within the past 72 hours and photo ID that associates the attendee with the test result. Only PCR test results will be accepted -- rapid-response test results will not be allowed.

Failure to comply will result in the attendee being refused entry to the stadium.

MEMORANDUM

Date: October 12, 2021
To: All Students, Alumni, Faculty, Staff and Visitors
From: Chief Jermaine Cherry (JC)
Re: Homecoming Safety

It gives me great pleasure to welcome you to North Carolina A&T State University Homecoming 2021. This year brings another year of excitement, despite the challenges the world continues to face with the COVID-19 Pandemic. The University will host several events, both on and off campus, during the week. On Saturday, October 30, 2021 our Aggies will take on Monmouth for an exciting football game, to include other events that will bring an estimated crowd of more than 50,000. I want to take this opportunity to list a few expectations, as well as highlight some safety tips for consideration, during your visit to our campus and the surrounding areas.

You Can Expect

1. A significant amount of road closures on and around the University.
2. A significant number of patrons and visitors, on foot, frequenting Truist Stadium, core University campus, and adjacent streets surrounding the University.
3. Increase security and police presence, on campus and throughout the area, to facilitate a safe environment for all patrons.

Safety Tips & Measures

- Please always wear your mask.
- Remember to social distance.
- Always keep your identification on your person.
- Walk in groups, and in well-lit areas when moving about at night.
- Do not carry large amounts of cash on our person; do not flash your money.
- Those who participate in the consumption of alcohol, drink responsibly. The legal age limit for alcohol possession and consumption is 21.
- Beware of individuals attempting to lure you into playing 3-Card Monty. This is a game of chance designed to separate you from your money. You cannot win!
- There are 44 Emergency Phones, located on campus for your use, should you experience an emergency.
- Download the LiveSafe app for NC A&T State University to assist with your personal safety.
- Dial 911 for emergencies you may experience or contact the University Police Department for assistance at (336) 334-7675.

Go Aggies!

THINK SAFETY FIRST

North Carolina A&T State University Police Department partners with the Greensboro Police Department and other law enforcement agencies during Homecoming to provide a safe and secure environment for all.

While we understand that Homecoming is an exciting time for celebrating with friends and colleagues, we would like to remind attendees to THINK SAFETY FIRST!

Events and festivities that attract large crowds also tend to attract crime. We want to provide Homecoming attendees with simple steps that will protect their person and their valuables during this time. As you coordinate your activities with friends for each event, THINK SAFETY FIRST, and include these safety measures in your plans.

HEALTH & WELLNESS

- Always wear a mask.
- Remember to social distance.
- Keep hand sanitizer on-hand.

HAVE A PLAN

- Select your events and purchase tickets in advance.
Designate drivers for each activity.
- Park in well-lit parking areas and write down where you parked.
- Stick together. Never travel alone. Leave with the group you came with.
- Make sure you have telephone numbers for those in your group.

KNOW YOUR LIMIT

- Be responsible. Do not consume alcohol if you are younger than 21 years of age.
- If you are of legal age to consume alcohol, drink responsibly.
- Do not accept open container drinks from strangers.
- Be mindful of police check points and plan accordingly.

- Remember, N.C. law prohibits the operation of a motor vehicle while drinking or under the influence of alcoholic beverages.

BE AWARE

- Know your surroundings. Be aware of what's going on around you.
- Take notice of street names, parking signs and landmarks.
- If you suspect you are being followed, cross the street, change direction or go to a place where others are standing. Remember that people use high traffic/crowded events as a time to commit crimes.
- If you are confronted by someone trying to victimize you, don't be a hero. Get a good description and call the police.

PROTECT YOUR VALUABLES

- Keep personal identification on you at all times limit the amount of cash and credit cards you carry with you.
- Secure cell phones and electronic devices properly when not in use.
- Keep handbags closed when not accessing contents.
- Secure all valuable items in the trunk of your vehicle. Do not leave valuables visible in your car.

DON'T GET CAUGHT OFF GUARD

- Be mindful. Do not let the festive atmosphere catch you off guard.
- Beware of ticket scalpers. Purchase all event tickets from the A&T Ticket Office and approved ticket venues.
- Beware of the Three Card Monte card scam that allows a group of people to work together to take/scam/swindle large sums of money from participants.
- Avoid displaying large sums of money.
- Keep your room and vehicle doors locked at all times.
- Do not take rides from strangers.
- Having fun is a priority during Homecoming, but safety should be first.

THINK SAFETY FIRST

CALL FOR HELP

- Call campus police at 336-334-7675 or 911 when you notice any suspicious activity.
- Remember, safety and security is everyone's business.
- For emergency assistance or Guilford County Emergency Medical Services (EMS), call 911.

The University Police Department wants Homecoming attendees to experience a safe and enjoyable weekend.
